Term 4 Week 9

Dec 6 2017

Swim School

It has been great to see the growth in swimming ability of our kids. Thanks so much to the teachers and instructors for your patience and effort.

Canteen

Next week is a sausage sizzle for K-2 students. There is no cost for this.

Gold Awards

Yeah Ellie. A well deserved recipient of her Gold Award.

Merit Awards

Well done to all our merit award winners last week. Great Work.

Fridays Assembly

The assembly this Friday will be held after lunch. It will commence at approx. 1:50pm.

Library

Borrowing has finished for the year. Please get any library returns in by the end of the week. We would like to get our stocktake for the year completed and preparations for library organisation for 2018 begun.

Presentation Assembly.

Our Presentation Assembly will be held on Wednesday 13th December. The formal assembly will begin at 6:00 but the P&C will be running a sausage sizzle and canteen beginning at 5:30. There will also be a Jolly visitor dressed in red arriving at about 5:30 too.

Captains Speeches

I was so proud of Percy, Dylan and Marcia for their preparation and delivery of their speeches on Friday. All would be worthy captains in 2018.

P &

C

The P and C will hold their annual Christmas store on Thursday December 14. Gifts from $1 to $5 may be purchased for mum, dad or grandparents.

The P and C will need help for an hour on Tuesday morning from 9:00am til 10:00am. Please come if you can assist.

Sad News

As many of you would have heard, Mrs Lund's husband passed away last week. He had been bravely fighting a terminal illness for many years. Mrs Lund is such a giving soul and has touched so many students with her kindness and passion for students achieving their best.

I would like to thank our students for their compassion and the staff from Ulmarra PS who enabled our school staff to attend the funeral and support Mrs Lund in this most trying of times.
