Term 4 Week 1

Oct 17 2018

Lake Ainsworth

What a wonderful time we all had at Lake Ainsworth. It was fantastic to see our students having a go and pushing themselves to try new things and build their resilience.

I was particularly proud of the way our students behaved, interacted with other students and made the most of every opportunity they were given. The instructors at the centre were so complimentary about our students that they made a special effort to come and say good bye when we left. Well done kids.

Y-PEP

For the next 4 weeks we will be running a student wellbeing and personal development program run by a group called Y-PEP. It is funded and supported by the NSW Government and offered free to schools. The program aims to strengthen the existing PDHPE child protection education content delivered by teachers, with a specific focus on Power in Relationships, Recognising Abuse and Protective Strategies.

Kindergarten Orientation

Kinder Orientation is beginning next Tuesday.

We can not wait to see our new students for 2019 and welcome them to our wonderful school.

Canteen

Team Collett are making lip smackingly delicious hamburgers next Monday for canteen. Please get your orders in by this Friday Morning.

Swim School

The annual swimming scheme will be conducted from November 12th to 23rd this year. Attached to the newsletter is the permission note It has been heavily subsidised by a grant from Sporting Schools Australia and the wonderful support of the school P&C. This is a vital part of our school year and all students are expected to participate. Please return the permission note and money as soon as possible. The cost this year is $50 per child. If you are having any issues with this please contact Mr Simpson as soon as possible.

Jacaranda Thursday

Thursday 1st November is Jacaranda Thursday and is a gazetted half day public holiday for our school. Clarence Valley schools understand the significance of Jacca Thursday and support this important community event. A note has been attached to the newsletter that is a permission note for students to attend the morning festivities or spend time with family and for it to be recorded as a justified absence from school.
